Think of us in the new year as you develop plans for lean manufacturing. From a single component to a full turn-key process line for bulk materials, we can help improve profits and reliability. Need to have a “white board” project meeting? Let our experience help you facilitate an effective meeting with engineering, production and maintenance. This strategy assures the kick off of a more successful project.

Stay tuned with more news to come in 2012: Pace Facebook page and exciting YouTube videos!

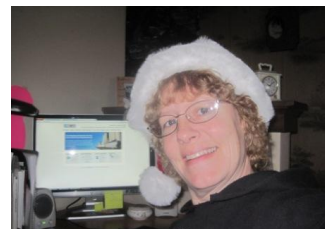

All the best for a safe and peaceful holiday season!.....
